last night's incident; and sat quite doubled up in a corner. The pain that I felt all over my body, owing to the severe beating that I had received o'er night, became so acute, that it appeared trying in the extreme for me to change postures. Such was the excruciating nature of the pain I felt, that I seemed to think that it had formed pus all over my body, in a single night.

The Superintendent no doubt inferred something wrong with me from what he saw, but said nothing, as it was nothing very uncommon in the lunatic Asylum, for some one or other amongst the lunatics to get a rub-a-dub-dub, now and again; making him spin like a top, for once or twice, and yet digest his bitter morsel in neglected silence, never to forget his experience, the rest of his days alive. The superintendent of himself made all necessary arrangements for whatever creature comforts it became possible for him to give me there, making me stay with the Europeans and enjoy some of their privileges regarding diet and other-necessaries, though I never asked
